Three Week Board in Tame (2,200$) is a program offered where the Client's dog goes to live in the home of a Tamed trainer's home for 15 days and 14 nights. During their stay they will go through extensive training to learn their Balanced foundation. The three week program is designed to give you a Jumpstart to your training but it does not end once the dog is returned. Transfer lessons can be held at the trainers home or Clients home if it is in Tamed's local Radius, this will be every Friday until the program is completed. The Client will use the weekends to practice what their pup has learned in the program. In this program the dog is dropped off on Monday to the trainers home no earlier than 8am. After transfer lesson three we recommend you continue to book out refresher lessons to continue further training that is more personalized to your daily routine. Once the dog is returned the owner must follow through with the dog's training and remain consistent and follow through with commands. (If you don't use it, you lose it). One can upgrade from one on one coaching to the Two Week Program by paying the upgrade fee. Each lesson given before the upgrade (before lesson three) will be discounted to 50$ and the client would pay the remainder balance of the 2200$. One does not get refunded their money (unless truly unsatisfied) if they decided to go with the One on One Coaching (pay per phase or lesson if they have less than 3 lessons) and then decided they want to board their dog for more than 5 days in attempt to get a discounted rate.

Tamed Boarding Refresher is $100 day and dogs must be picked up before 12pm on day of pick-up, otherwise you will be charged 1/2 day price of $50
